Gathings Opposes Pay Raise Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. E. C. Gathings, D-Ark., voted against a federal pay increase bill last March and says he is just as opposed to a second pay boost bill due to come up soon in the House.

The first measure was killed 222-184. Gathings said passage of the bill would be "a reckless abandonment of prudence and a total disregard for the taxpayer citizens across the country."

Included in the bill are pay increases for postal and civil service employees. It also would give members of Congress pay raises of $7,500 a year, increasing their salaries to $30,000. Salary boosts for the judiciary also are included.

While most of the money would go to federal and postal employees, much of the debate on the bill undoubtedly will center on the Congressional pay raise. This was the case last March.

The sponsors of the bill beat back all efforts to trim the Congressional pay raise from the $10,000 yearly which was proposed, or to make it effective next year.

As a result, many House members were unable to support it, although many had said they favored some pay increase for federal employees.

The new bill proposes the $7,500 Congressional pay boost be effective next year.

Gathings' objection, however, is that the bill would add $534 million annually to government costs and that it would "set the wheels moving for general wage boosts across the economy," starting another inflationary spiral.

Gathings said Congress should be guided by "fiscal responsibility" after voting on a $11.5 billion tax decrease this year.

Tuscaloosa Alerted for Racial Fight

By REX THOMAS
TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — Watchful police kept a round-the-clock surveillance on the Negro community in Tuscaloosa today, alert for signs of new demonstrations in the wake of Tuesday's bloody street battle.

Negro leaders, some of them in jail as a result of the clash with police, gave no indication of their future course.

The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. ordered some of his key staff members sent in to Tuscaloosa. City authorities assumed that some effort might be made to keep the demonstrations alive despite the ban on street marches which touched off the wild outbreak of club swinging and rock and bottle throwing.

Ninety-six Negroes went to jail in the aftermath of a 45-minute siege which sent 33 Negroes and a policeman to a hospital with cuts and bruises and tear-gas sickness.

City police and sheriffs deputies, reinforced by plainclothes state investigators, patroled Negro sections through the night but found no evidence of organized Negro activity.

State troopers, some of whom stood guard at the University of Alabama campus in Tuscaloosa just a year ago when two Negroes were admitted to the university, reportedly were ready to move into the city if local authorities asked for them.

The clash between Negro demonstrators and police was the first outbreak of racial violence in this heavily industrialized community since the Autherine Lucy riot eight years ago. Miss Lucy, the first Negro enrolled as a student at the university, was driven from the campus by an angry white mob. Later she was expelled for accusing university authorities of conspiring with the rioting crowd.

Garrett Revival Begins June 14

Garrett Memorial Baptist Church, 306 N. Ferguson St. will be engaged in a revival beginning Sunday, June 14, which will continue through June 21. The Rev. Jewel McCracken from Jonesboro, Ark., will be bringing the messages. Services will be each morning at 10 and each night at 7:30.

On Trial for Killing Her Husband

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Police Chief Max Tackett testified today that Mrs. Majorie Ann Henderson, 40, was "listless and had little interest in what was happening" on the night she was arrested for shooting her husband.

Trial of Mrs. Henderson on a first degree murder charge opened today in Miller Circuit Court before a jury of 11 men, one a Negro, and one woman. The jury was not qualified for the death penalty.

W.G. Henderson, a used car dealer, was shot at the couple's home last Jan. 29. The defense has entered a plea of innocent by reason of insanity.

Doctors at the State Hospital decided, however, that Mrs. Henderson was sane.

Tackett and Asst. Police Chief Howard Giles were the only witnesses presented by the state. They told of arresting Mrs. Henderson and of statements she made on the night of the earrest.

Tackett said she acted like a "petulant child." But he added, "Her behavior wasn't unusual for a woman. They use all sorts of ruses to keep from doing something."

Giles said Mrs. Henderson was "somewhat hazy" about developments during the investigation.

The defense was expected to center its case on testimony of psychiatrists.

Drive-in Revival at Water Creek

There will be a Drive-In Revival at the Water Creek church beginning Monday night, June 15, at 7:30. Rev. Gene Shoemaker is preaching. The church is on old 67 highway two miles west of the Guernsey school. The public is invited.

The Round-Up Club will meet Thursday, June 11 at 7 p.m. at Arch Wylie's arena. All members are urged to attend.

Hal Boyle, Old Front Correspondent, Talks of Elusive Truth of War

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Nobody remembers war altogether as it happened. No one can tell the truth of a battlefield.

They forget its actuality as they grow older, and change it to suit their age.

Nobody can find out the true story of combat, not even five minutes after an event occurs.

A battlefield is a great mystery while it is being fought. No one has the full story then or later.

There is an involvement with the enemy. The chaos of clash is immediate; it can never be accurately reassembled by recall. Too much happens all at once.

That is why I feel a bit sorry for those who went back to Normandy last week for the 20th anniversary of one of mankind's more memorable military adventures.

Going back to a place you knew in war is a journey even more lonesome in peace than it was when the ignition of danger and the purpose of a mutual endeavor threw a glare upon the commonplace. You can never quite find what you look for.

I found this to be true when I went back to France five years after it was invaded by the Allies. I found it even more true when I went back 10 years after. It was my wish to return again last week two decades after those strident days of thunder and nights of flare when the breaking of the St. Lo position wheeled the Allies toward victory.

Laos Flights Checked to Conference

By ANTOINE YARED
VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Leonard Unger said today that continuance of American reconnaissance flights over Laos and fighter escorts for the flights is still a matter of decision between him and Premier Souvanna Phouma.

Unger told a news conference he expects to consult with Prince Souvanna Thursday on the flights when the premier returns from an overnight trip to the royal capital of Luang Prabang. Souvanna went there this morning, presumably to brief King Savang Vathana on developments.

The ambassador was commenting on unofficial reports that Souvanna had said he wanted the American reconnaissance flights—which he requested three weeks ago—stopped today.

Unger said he had no formal knowledge of Souvanna's reported desire to have the flights halted. But well-informed sources said no flights had been scheduled for today.

These sources said there had been no plans for daily flights on an indefinite basis. They indicated the purpose of the reconnaissance missions—to spot

Pecks in Canada for Rotary Int'l

Toronto, Ont., Canada — In Toronto for the 1964 convention of Rotary International are Mr. and Mrs. George W. Peck of 506 N. Washington, Hope, Ark. They arrived Thursday, June 4, and after convention, plan to travel in the Great Lakes area having already visited Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa and Niagara Falls.

The Rotary convention began June 7 and closes June 11. It has brought to Toronto more than 12,718 Rotarians and members of their families from 49 countries in all parts of the world.

Among the featured speakers on the Rotary convention program are Lester B. Pearson, Prime Minister of Canada; Carlos P. Romulo, former ambassador to the UN and now president of the University of the Philippines; and Clinton P. Anderson, U.S. senator from New Mexico and a past president of Rotary International.

Louisiana Teacher Pay Raise Loses

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Gov. John McKeithen, still abed in the mansion with the mumps, nursed his first major legislative setback on teacher pay today—plus a bruised "code of ethics."

The House defeated McKeithen's forces 74-29 Tuesday in a 3½ hour debate and sent its own teacher pay raise bill to the Senate under threat of a veto.

The Senate Judiciary Committee staggered under a load of amendments to the governor's code of ethics for state employees and elected officials. There were indications the two bills involved might be cut to pieces even if they managed to stay alive.

Chairman Jamar Adcock, a McKeithen floor leader, said after a closed-door session of the committee he couldn't say when any more action on the code of ethics might be expected.

But he insisted the legislation might be passed.

Despite his losses, McKeithen had success in the senate finance committee.

The committee voted over opposition from Chairman B. B. Rayburn to put to death a teacher pay raise bill similar to the one which came over from the house.

Under the House-passed bill, all state education funds would be applied to the pay raise until they are gone. Critics complained this would result in closed schools after six or eight months.

McKeithen pleaded for weeks that teacher leaders give him time to find funds for the pay raise. He hinted at a special session this fall to do the job.

Shreveport Jets to Fly This Sunday

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — Strategic Air Command jet bombers will begin subsonic, low level training missions Sunday over Western Arkansas and Southeast Oklahoma.

The exercise, called "Poker Deck 2-1", will give SAC crews practice at penetrating enemy defenses from low altitudes.

Second Air Force Headquarters at Barksdale Air Force Base here said the B-52s will fly without bombs between 300 and 1,000 feet above ground level day and night.

The tour in Arkansas begins about 10 miles west of Fort Smith, north for 16 miles, northeast over the Boston Mountains to a point 13 miles southeast of Fayetteville, southeastward 43 miles to a point 10 miles west of Russellville, over the Blue Mountains, to a point 22 miles southeast of Mena, and then into Oklahoma.

Flood Toll in Montana Rises to 30

By BURL OSBORNE
GREAT FALLS, Mont. (AP) — Flood waters chased at least 2,000 persons from their homes here Tuesday night after leaving 30 or more dead and hundreds homeless upstream.

Gov. Tim Babcock estimated damage from the flood, Montana's worst, at $10 million. President Johnson declared seven northwestern counties a disaster area.

In the northwest, hit first by the three-day flood, waters receded and rescue teams started mopping up.

The Sun River crested 11 feet over its flood stage of 12 feet at midnight in this city of 70,000. A spokesman for the Air Force and National Guard's rescue operations estimated 2,000 to 3,000 persons were evacuated from homes here and in the flooded areas to the west and north.

Tom Sullivan, manager of a Red Cross shelter, said he had made records of about 1,300 persons evacuated from homes west of Great Falls and from an exclusive residential area surrounding a country club and golf course. The shelter is in West Side Junior High School, where Frank N. Getman, vice president of Richardson - Merrill, Inc., made the deposition under questioning by two New York attorneys who represent the plaintiffs—Truman Ellerbe, Lonnie Ray, Mrs. Lilla Newsom and Mrs. May G. Lyons, all of Crossett.

The suit also is against William S. Merrill Co., a subsidiary of Getman's company.

The plaintiffs claim they suffered physical harm by taking the drug for heart and circulatory ailments.

Republicans to Cut Away Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican foreign aid opponents disclosed today they hope to slice from $200 million to $400 million from the administration's "barebones" foreign aid authorization bill.

The $3.5 - billion measure reaches the amendment stage today.

Rep. E. Ross Adair, R-Ind., told a newsman several alternative money-saving amendments have been prepared and developments on the House floor would determine which would be offered.

He said he planned to attempt no cuts in the military assistance portion of the bill, which amounts to $1,055,000,000.

Angry Wife Kills 4 of 5 Children

MIDLAND, Pa. (AP) — A housewife, apparently distraught after a quarrel with her husband, shot and killed four of her five children today on the outskirts of this western Pennsylvania town, police reported.

The children, three boys and a girl ranging in age from 2 to 5, were each shot once through the heart as they lay in their beds in the basement of the family's partly constructed home in adjoining Ohioville Borough.

They were the children of Mitchell and Mary Zlatovich. He is the brother of the borough police chief, Bernie Zlatovich, who was the first to arrive at the scene just before dawn.

The chief said he was called by Mrs. Zlatovich, who is 24. Coroner John Colavincenzo said the woman told him she would have shot the baby also but ran out of cartridges for a .32 caliber pistol.

Negro March Hit by Riot in Florida

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP) — Gangs of screaming white men and youths attacked white and Negro marchers with fists and feet in bold defiance of the law in this old city.

The slugging, kicking attackers moved in on their victims—marching two abreast on a downtown sidewalk—and then fled when policemen armed with clubs moved in Tuesday night.

About a dozen demonstrators were assaulted. The violence ended when marchers returned to the church where they began their protest.

Police headquarters said there were no arrests.

The march came within a few hours after a federal judge in Jacksonville ordered police to lift their ban on night demonstrations and to reduce bail for a group of marchers arrested earlier.

"Despite what happened, we are going to continue protesting unjust discrimination," said the leader of the march, the Rev. Andrew Young.

Helena OK's Bonds for Big Plant

HELENA, Ark. (AP) — Voters here passed 1,526 to 2 Tuesday a $29 million revenue bond issue to finance construction of a $33 million plant.

The bonds, to be issued under Act 9 of 1960, carry no tax. Rental money from the facility to be built backs the bonds.

Arkla Chemical Co., an Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. subsidiary, will build the plant, which will employ about 300 in producing ammonia, ammonium nitrate, urea and other fertilizer components.

The plant will be built 1½ miles south of Helena on the Mississippi River.

The vote represented 54 percent of the qualified electors in Helena—more than the number who voted in the 1962 Democratic primary election.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Both Arkansas senators, J. William Fulbright and John McClellan, voted today against a move to invoke cloture on the civil rights bill.

They were among 23 Democrats opposing limitation of debate on the bill to one hour for each speaker.

The cloture motion passed 71 to 29.

Big Cotton Subsidy to Mills

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's cotton mills received $20,068,060 in government subsidies under the administration's new cotton stabilization program between April 11 and June 5.

But in disclosing this, the Agricultural Department withheld names of the individual mills and the amounts received by each.

The subsidies are designed to make cotton available to domestic mills on prices on par with those paid by foreign buyers who have been getting cotton more cheaply under a government export subsidy. The payment was authorized by Congress in cotton legislation passed in April.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman told a news conference Tuesday that his agency had decided against disclosing names of the cotton subsidy recipients. He said this would give the mills information relating to operations of their competitors.

The subsidy to the mills averages about $32.50 a bale. Thus the payments were made on approximately 617,400 bales.

No Relief From Heat in Sight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

North Arkansas is due for slightly cooler weather tonight, but otherwise little change is expected in the state's current weather pattern through Thursday.

The outlook is for clear to partly cloudy weather with a chance of thundershowers in the north portions this afternoon or evening.

High temperatures of 86 to 96 are forecast today and Thursday with overnight low readings in the 60s north and 70s south.

Maximum temperatures Tuesday ranged from 87 at Fayetteville to 96 at Fort Smith. Overnight low marks ranged from 68 at Fayetteville to 78 in the Memphis-West Memphis vicinity.

The Crop Reporting Service says the growth of most Arkansas crops is considered fair to good, but has been slowed by dry weather.

Moisture supply is short over most of the state. The official rainfall report shows 24.56 inches to date this year, 12.1 below normal.

The service termed the condition of cotton fair to good, said rice prospects are favorable, soybean planting is about three fourths complete and corn planting is nearing completion.

The report said soybean planting has virtually stopped in some localities because of dry soil.

Laos Flights

Communist military concentrations—might have been achieved but that further periodic flights might be needed for checks.

Souvanha indicated to newsmen Tuesday that he had not given authorization for armed fighters to escort the photo planes. The U.S. decision to provide armed fighter cover for the unarmed planes has stirred a controversy in Vientiane.

A U.S. Embassy spokesman said earlier the decision to provide fighter cover had been made on consultation with Souvanha's government.

Unger reaffirmed he had consulted with Souvanha regarding protection for the reconnaissance planes but declined to elaborate.

Souvanha said he had proposed that Laotian air force fighters escort the American photo jets.

The Communist Pathet Lao charged in a Peking broadcast that six U.S. jet fighters flew over Khang Khay, the Pathet Lao headquarters in central Laos, and nearby Phong Savang Tuesday and attacked Phong Savang with 12 bombs, and two rockets.

Prince Souphanouvong, the Pathet Lao leader, had been expected to complain further about the reported attack today at a meeting in Khang Khay with members of the three-nation International Control Commission. Soviet Ambassador Sergei Atanasiyev and British Charge d'Affaires John Denson.

Bad weather forced the helicopters taking the foreign diplomats to Khang Khay to return to Vientiane.

The Pathet Lao claimed its gunners damaged two of the U.S. planes that attacked Phong Savang.

(The New York Times, quoting reliable sources in Washington, said the U.S. jets attacked a Communist gun position in retaliation for the downing of two American jets over the weekend. The Times said President Johnson and his advisers were reported to have ordered the attack to underline U.S. determination to stand firm in Laos. The attack was also interpreted in Washington as an effort to recoup prestige in the wake of the downing of the jets, the Times said.)

Johnsons Worth 9 Millions

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Lyndon B. Johnsons are doing quite well financially — what with an estimated wealth of more than $9 million—but don't get the idea they are the richest family ever to inhabit the White House.

Who, then, was our best-heeled president? It's hard to figure—because of the changing values of money and other factors—but all evidence points to George Washington.

When the father of his country died he left real estate valued then at $530,000, including the famous Mount Vernon. Translated into today's values that might mean $20 million or more.

Though Washington was rich in land, slaves and tobacco, he was sometimes short of cash. In fact, just before his first inauguration, he had to hit a fellow townsman in Alexandria, Va., up for a loan of 600 pounds, at 6 per cent interest.

"Short crops and other causes not entirely within my control" had temporarily strapped him, he said.

Second richest president may be Herbert Hoover, though this is not known with any certainty. An engineer and mining promoter, he rolled up a $6-million fortune as early as 1914. There is no exact information how this has grown since, though it is known that Hoover has made large gifts to education and charity.

Other well-to-do presidents: John F. Kennedy—whose estate was reported to total something like $10 million, at least.

Franklin D. Roosevelt — $1,085,500.

Theodore Roosevelt — $811,000.

Thomas Jefferson died owing $40,000. He had really splurged fixing up that magnificent home, Monticello, at Charlottesville, Va., and was never a man to stint the pennies during his many years of ill-paid public service.

Dwight D. Eisenhower and Harry S. Truman are feeling no pain financially.

Back in 1952, during the presidential campaign, Eisenhower published a financial accounting showing a 10-year net income after taxes of $643,148. The bulk of this was a $476,250 net on his book "Crusade in Europe."

Truman has done well, starting his retirement by writing his memoirs for a net of maybe $250,000, and going right on. All this delving into presidential fortunes, or lack thereof, is occasioned by a report in the Washington Evening Star Tuesday that the Johnson family is worth $9 million or more, in television and radio stations, land, banks and stocks.

Relatives Can't Ask for Ballot

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The attorney general's office ruled Tuesday that a person's relatives cannot apply for his absentee ballot.

Post card applications from persons in military service also will not be accepted unless they bear a striking similarity to regular application forms, the opinion said.

Calhoun County Circuit and County Clerk Joe Fred McDonald requested the opinion.

more than 200 residents slept Tuesday night.

The 147th Street bridge in Great Falls held fast despite a heavy pounding by water, trees, parts of farm buildings and other debris.

A natural gas pipeline under the Sixth Street bridge burst with a shudder that was felt by onlookers.

Air Force teams said they rescued at least 200 persons from rural areas. The Air Force was using Mainstrom Air Force Base at Great Falls for a headquarters for 11 helicopters and other craft.

Pilots made 38 flights Tuesday and were prepared to take additional supplies to flood victims evacuated to other areas.

At least 400 were homeless in the northwest corners of Cascade, Chouteau, Flathead, Glacier, Pondera, Teton and Toole, those designated for federal disaster relief. Hardest hit was the Blackfeet Indian Reservation.

Highway 2 was opened to East Glacier, the eastern gateway to Glacier National Park and U.S. 89 was opened for the first time since Monday, allowing rescue operations to reach Babb, near the Canadian border.

A road was opened south of Browning to the Two Medicine Creek, but washed-out bridges and roads still had the Birch Creek area isolated. It was the Swift Reservoir dam on Birch Creek that broke Monday, sending a 30-foot wall of water downstream.

This water surged into the Marias River. Other flooding creeks pushed the Teton River over its banks. Both rivers flow into the Missouri River near Loma, population 200, which was evacuated Tuesday night.

Drinking water, contaminated in numerous smaller communities, was safe in Great Falls.

sen of Illinois introduced the leaders' substitute bill worked out with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Overnight, the substitute had been revised further to include the jury trial amendment adopted 51-48 in the Senate Tuesday.

The adoption of the amendment, sponsored by Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky., was credited with winning some crucial Republican votes for cloture.

Off-the-floor maneuvering continued right up to the hour of the vote.

Leadership hopes of mustering the two-thirds majority were bolstered by the Senate's rejection Tuesday of three amendments by substantial margins after a jury trial amendment was adopted by 51 to 48 count.

A chance to vote on the amendments before the cloture showdown was demanded by a group of Republican senators, led by Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper of Iowa, whose support was regarded as essential if cloture was to be obtained.

Hickenlooper, chairman of the Senate GOP policy committee, said after the amendments were acted on that he would vote for cloture. Not to do so, he said, would be "only a delaying tactic."

Nearly 500 amendments have been proposed in addition to a package of amendments which Democratic and Republican leaders have drafted as a substitute for the House-passed measure.

Supporters of the civil rights measure won their biggest victories Tuesday in votes on the equal employment opportunity section, regarded as perhaps the most controversial part of the legislation.

By a vote of 64 to 33, the Senate defeated an amendment by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., to strike out this section prohibiting discrimination in employment on account of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

Crewmen fired it Tuesday—and it lifted off perfectly and streaked west down the Pacific missile range toward an undisclosed target area 5,000 miles away.

Negro March

Young was struck in the mouth, knocked down and beaten but not hurt seriously. Wiping at a cut on his lip, Young shrugged off questions whether he would ask for federal protection.

He is an aide to the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, who was scheduled to arrive here today.

Tuesday night's march started from St. Mary's Baptist church, a few blocks from the downtown area. The target, as in past marches, was the old slave market in the city park near the riverfront.

Nearly 300 demonstrators walked quietly downtown without incident. As they headed back toward the church they ran into trouble. White marchers were singled out.

A big white man, weighing about 230 pounds, pummeled to the pavement the Rev. William England, 33, Boston University chaplain, who is white. The assailant then methodically kicked and stomped the chaplain, slumped with his hands over his head.

The thud of the kicks was punctuated with groans from the victim. A slender Negro boy about 12, threw his body over the chaplain.

Policemen attempted no arrests of the assailants.

An injunction by U.S. Dist. Judge Bryan Simpson opened the way for a renewal of night marches, banned by police order May 28 after white youths attacked newsmen during a night protest.

appropriations subcommittee has finished its markup of a bill carrying funds for water projects in the year starting July 1, including funds for the Arkansas River program.

The full committee is to act on the bill in the next few days and sent to the House.

While the subcommittee makes no announcements of its proceedings, some information does leak out.

Word on the river program is that the subcommittee recommended an amount over the budget recommendation of $84 million, but so far no figures have been disclosed.

Arkansas and Oklahoma sponsors of the river program asked that the budget recommendation be hiked by $15 million to keep the program on schedule, which calls for completion of the navigation channel by 1970.

There has been speculation among Arkansans close to the project that Congress may provide something less than the additional $15 million, in the belief that Army Engineers could keep the program on schedule with a smaller amount.

The Soviet Spacewoman Is Mother

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW

MOSCOW (AP) — The world's only space woman, Valentina Nikolayevna - Tereshkova, gave birth to a daughter last Sunday, the Soviet news agency Tass announced today.

The baby's father is Soviet spaceman Andrian Nikolayev, who orbited the earth in August 1962, with Lt. Col. Pavel Popovich. Valentina orbited the earth in company with Valery Bykovsky in June 1963.

Both mother and daughter are well, Tass said.

Usually reliable sources said the baby weighed nearly 7 pounds.

Valentina and Nikolayev were married in Moscow last Nov. 3 and spent their honeymoon touring South Asian countries.

Although the baby is the first born to an astronaut couple, Gherman Titov was the first astronaut to become a father after orbiting the earth. His wife gave birth to a daughter, Tanya, last September.

Valentina, whose married name according to Russian custom is Nikolayevna-Tereshkova, is 27. Nikolayev is 34.

Three days ago the doctor for the Soviet astronauts, Dr. Evgeny Petrov, reported that Valentina was in the best of health. During her pregnancy she has been studying at the Military Aeronautic Engineering Academy and recently passed examinations in English and mathematics.

The astronauts were married in a televised white wedding at the flower-decked Palace of Marriages in Moscow. At the reception afterward, with Premier Khrushchev as host, the newlyweds were given a "symbolic present" by Soviet military leaders. It was a little doll—a girl.

Khrushchev said he was a sort of foster father to the young couple, both of whom lost their fathers during World War II.

Spa Grand Jury Favors Gambling

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — A Garland County Grand Jury recommendation that gambling be legalized in Hot Springs was made public here Tuesday.

Circuit Judge P.E. Dobbs revealed the jury report, which he received last Friday.

Dobbs empaneled the jury April 13, making it the first grand jury called into session in five years.

The report said the jury "recommends to the voters of Arkansas that they consider the proposed legislation for lawful wagering in Garland County as being in the best interest of the state and Garland County."

The Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce backs a petition movement to put a proposed constitutional amendment before voters in November. The amendment would legalize gambling and place it under state control.

The jury also investigated construction of a municipal auditorium, a $1.5 million industrial bond issue, a county-owned hospital and the Hot Springs police department.

It decided that delays in auditorium construction were caused by architectural changes; that the bonds were sold at a rate advantageous to the county; that the hospital was operated in a businesslike manner and properly audited; and that there has been improvement in the police department.

The jury found violation of state laws regarding sales to the city and county by elected or appointed officials, but did not elaborate on the matter.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Circuit Judge P. E. Dobbs and Prosecutor David B. Whittington continued their wrangling over legal matters here Friday.

Dobbs said Whittington has the same power as a grand jury. Whittington said a grand jury is the most fundamental of American rights, that ours is a government of laws and that he would take the matter to the state Supreme Court.

The dispute began April 13, when the Garland County Grand Jury was called into session for the first time in five years.

Dobbs handed 180 cases to the jury, saying Whittington had filed informations in the cases where there was sufficient evidence, but no grand jury had been called to handle them.

Dobbs said Amendment 21 of 1936 to the state constitution gives grand jury powers to prosecutors.

Whittington disagreed, saying he intends to take the matter to the state Supreme Court.

White Sox Turn Back Baltimore

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer

Don't feel sorry for J.C. Martin. Let Ray Katt, Gus Triandos, Joe Ginsberg and Charley Lau hand out the sympathy. They're the ones who know what it's like to try and catch the butterflies Hoyt Wilhelm throws.

Martin had one of those nightmarish evenings that all of Wilhelm's catchers experience now and then as the White Sox whipped the second-place Baltimore Orioles 9-5 Tuesday and extended their American League lead to 1½ games.

Juan Pizarro was breezing to his seventh victory with a 6-1 lead through seven innings and Martin was taking it easy while Camilo Carreon handled the big mitt.

Three Oriole hits in the eighth brought Al Lopez out of the Sox dugout on the run and he called for Wilhelm. When the veteran reliever got the high sign, it meant Martin had to go to work too and that's when the trouble started.

One of Wilhelm's flutterballs got away and Sam Bowens, who was on third, started for the plate. Martin, who is used to this sort of thing, made a quick recovery and Bowens pulled up short. J.C. fired to third to try and get the runner but the ball sailed into left field and the runner scored.

Moments later another Wilhelm knuckler fluttered away and moved Norm Siebern to third. He later scored on Al Weis' throwing error.

In the ninth J.C. allowed two more pitches to get by, setting up the Orioles' final run. In case you haven't been counting that's three passed balls and a throwing error in two innings of catching Wilhelm.

In other AL games Tuesday, Washington swept two games from Kansas City 8-4 and 5-1. Los Angeles stopped Cleveland 5-1. Boston whipped New York 5-2 and Detroit walloped Minnesota 16-1.

In the National League Cincinnati nipped Los Angeles 2-1. St. Louis blanked San Francisco 1-0. Houston swept two from Milwaukee 6-5 and 4-1. New York nipped Chicago 6-5 in 12 innings but lost the second game of a two-night doubleheader 5-2, and Philadelphia and Pittsburgh split with the Phillies winning 4-3 and then losing 4-0. Martin once said Wilhelm's knuckler "dances like it was something bewitched," but all he has to do is catch it. Pity the poor guys who have to swing against it.

The aging knuckler lowered his earned-run average to 1.50 with his 14th save as the streaking Sox won their 11th game in the last 15.

Pizarro, who ran his record to 7-2, had the key hit for Chicago, a two-run single in the five-run White Sox' fourth.

Chuck Hinton slammed six hits in the doubleheader for the Senators and ran his average to .350. Buster Narum and Tom Cheney went the distance to gain the victories. It was Cheney's first triumph since July 4 of last year.

Chuck Cottier's three-run homer helped Narum overcome a shaky start in the opener and Mike Brumley's bases-loaded triple eased Cheney's way in the nightcap.

Fred Newman threw a six-hitter at the Indians and Bob Perry cracked his first home run as the Angels collected 13 hits.

Redskins Complete Rebuilding

WASHINGTON (AP)—Trader Bill McPeak, rebuilding his Washington Redskins under a "win or else" ultimatum, has all but shut up shop after swinging a deal for a much-needed pass receiver and a veteran defensive lineman.

The trade Tuesday brought end Angelo Coia and defensive tackle Fred Williams to Washington from the Chicago Bears in exchange for the Redskins' No. 1 draft choice next fall. McPeak, who was told when he was signed for 1964 to produce a winner or he wouldn't be back for 1965, now has traded away four of the first 10 Redskins choices in the National Football League draft next fall.

He also has traded away some mighty familiar faces—quarterback Norman Sneed, defensive end Andy Stynchula and half-back Dick James.

The Redskins coach-general manager told a news conference that the addition of Coia and Williams makes every position "pretty solid" for next fall. He added, "We don't have any glaring weakness."

Dick Radatz saved Boston's victory for Earl Wilson as the Red Sox tagged Al Downing with his second loss. It was Radatz' 29th appearance and 17th in Boston's last 26 games.

Roger Maris and Bobby Richardson homered for the Yankees.

Don Demeter had three hits including two home runs for five RBI to pace Detroit's attack. Al Kaline also had three hits for the Tigers and raised his average to .298, a jump of .03 points in the last two weeks.

Bill Freehan also homered for Detroit and Harmon Killebrew tagged his 17th for the Twins.

Heinie Miller, Grid Great, Dies

LONGPORT, N.J. (AP)—Henry (Heinie) J. Miller, All-America football end in 1919 at the University of Pennsylvania, died unexpectedly Tuesday at his home in this resort near Atlantic City. He was 71.

Miller, a retired insurance executive who lived here for the past 15 years, was born in Williamsport, Pa., and helped coach at St. Joseph's College, Temple University and West Chester State Teachers College after his graduation from Penn in 1920.

Cage Team Beefed Up by Detroit

BALTIMORE (AP)—A monumental 5-for-3 trade with the Baltimore Bullets, involving such stars as Bailey Howell and Terry Dischinger, has given General Manager Coach Charley Wolf of the Detroit Pistons a good start toward keeping a promise.

The promise, made at the end of last season, was that the Pistons would undergo at least a "60 per cent turnover" in personnel before they started a new National Basketball Association campaign.

Besides Howell, greatest scorer in Pistons history, Detroit gave up veterans Don Ohl and Bob Ferry and heir No. 2 and 3 draft choices—6-foot-8 Les Hunter of Chicago Loyola and ball-handling whiz Wiley Jones of Villanova.

Along with Dischinger, the 1963 NBA rookie of the year and a 20.8-points-per-game man last season, Baltimore dealt off rookies Rod Thorn and Don Kojis.

The Bullets finished fourth and the Pistons fifth in the league's Western half, but the management of both clubs contended Tuesday's deal, the biggest in NBA history, makes the future look rosy.

Bullet General Manager Paul Hoffman called Ohl, a good outside shot who averaged 17.3 last season, "probably the finest guard in the league" and noted that Howell has averaged between 17.8 and 23.4 over a five-year span during which he has totaled 8,182 points for a Pistons career record.

The triumph expanded Arkansas' Eastern Division lead to 2½ games.

Gigon had singled to open the 12th, and got to second on Bobby Malmkus' sacrifice.

Ken Berry homered in the ninth inning for Indianapolis to tie the score 3-3.

Arkansas got a run in the first inning, and added two in the sixth when Lee Elia singled with the bases loaded.

Ray Sadecki Beats Giants by 1 to 0

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
Ray Sadecki certainly has matured quickly.

Two years ago he was being called a 10-year-old boy. Now Sadecki's 23—and the hottest pitcher on the St. Louis staff.

Sadecki gave still another indication of his transition Tuesday night, with a six-hit, 1-0 victory over Juan Marichal and the National League leading San Francisco Giants.

It was the first shutout of the season and the sixth straight victory as a starter for the onetime bad boy of the Cardinal staff.

Two years and four days before he had stepped to the mound against Cincinnati and faced just five batters. When he trudged off the mound, he had been tagged for five runs on two homers, a single and two of his own errors.

St. Louis Manager Johnny Keane, flushed with anger, cited Sadecki for acting "like a 10-year-old boy" and said his performance was "the worst exhibition of effort I've ever seen on a major league diamond."

Sadecki countered: "I don't see how I can pitch anymore for a guy like this," and said he was quitting the team.

Cooler heads prevailed and Keane and Sadecki wound up shaking hands. Sadecki also wound up in the minors.

Last year Sadecki returned and was 10-10. Then he got off to a quick 0-3 start this season. But he hasn't lost since as a starter, his one defeat coming in a relief role. His latest victory snapped a four-game St. Louis losing streak and cut the Giants league lead to one game over Philadelphia.

The Phillies split, ending a four-game skid with a 4-3 first-game victory before Pittsburgh rookie Steve Blass stopped them 4-0 on four hits in the nightcap.

In the only other single game, Cincinnati edged the Los Angeles Dodgers 2-1. Houston defeated Milwaukee 6-5 and 4-1 while the New York Mets edged the Chicago Cubs 6-5 in 12 innings before losing 5-2.

The American League-leading Chicago White Sox belted Baltimore 9-5. Detroit crushed Minnesota 16-1. Boston downed the New York Yankees 5-2, the Los Angeles Angels whipped Cleveland 5-1 and Washington took a pair from Kansas City 8-4 and 5-1.

Marichal, now 8-2, had allowed only three hits when the Cardinals finally struck for the game's only run in the ninth. Curt Flood started things with a single, moved up on a sacrifice and raced home on a single by Charley James.

Marichal collected two of the Giants' hits, but muffed a sacrifice in the third inning that probably cost a run. With Gil Garrido on second, Marichal missed a bunt and Garrido was thrown out at third. Harvey Kuenn then singled.

The Phillies broke through in the first game when Richie Allen hit his 11th homer, the first for Philadelphia in 75 innings. Art Mahaffey, however, couldn't hold a 4-0 lead and needed Ed Roebuck's relief help after Jerry Lynch closed the gap with a three-run homer.

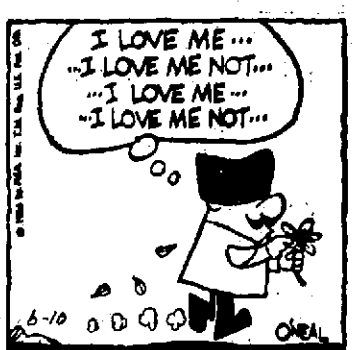

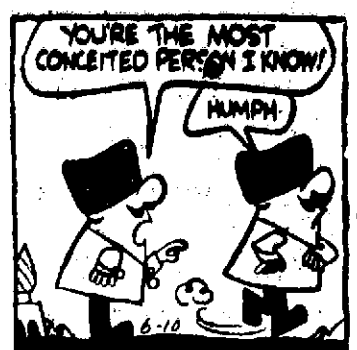

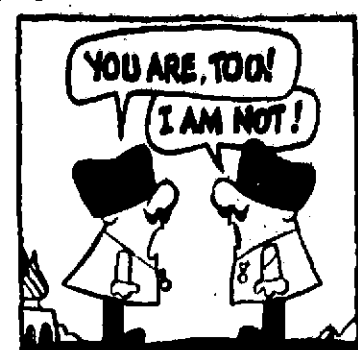

Blass pitched his first major league shutout in the nightcap, bringing his record to 3-2 with the Colts.

The Mets won the opener against the Cubs when Jesse Gonder singled with the bases loaded in the 12th inning, capping a two-run rally. Larry Bearnarth pitched 7 1/3 innings of hitless relief ball and wound up the winner, with a six-hit, 10-inning performance.

Lew Burdette, acquired from St. Louis, won his first start for the Cubs in the nightcap. The decisive run came across in the sixth on a double by Billy Williams and Ron Santo's single.

Still Seek Goldwater Alternate

By JACK BELL
CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said today the search for an alternative candidate to Sen. Barry Goldwater for the Republican presidential nomination still is being continued by GOP governors.

Goldwater breezed through the 56th annual Governors Conference Monday night and flew back to Washington with confidence that former President Dwight D. Eisenhower will not upset his bid for the nomination.

The Arizona Republican said in an interview he thinks the former president is about the only man who could keep him from getting the nomination. He said he is convinced that Eisenhower will remain neutral.

Nixon, the 1960 presidential nominee, said after a breakfast meeting with GOP governors today that several of them who are not satisfied with Goldwater's conservative views are still trying to get together on a candidate they can back.

He said this candidate should be a governor and not himself. He indicated he thinks the most likely possibilities are Govs. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania and George Romney of Michigan.

It was Nixon's opinion that the chances for an agreement on a candidate the party moderates could back against Goldwater were not very great.

Nixon contended that the party must work hard to have Goldwater change some of his views on national issues.

"It would be a tragedy for the Republican party if the Goldwater views previously stated were not repudiated," Nixon told the news conference.

Nixon termed Goldwater "as odds-on favorite," but said he does not have the nomination "wrapped up."

He said that a number of the governors expressed concern because there might not be a contest at the Republican convention in San Francisco.

Nixon also contended that any opposition force "if it emerges, will have to emerge this week."

He said that if such a development were to come about it would be decided by the governors "by the end of this week."

"I am confident Sen. Goldwater will support a platform with views which in the past he has been in a minority on," Nixon said.

heavy hitting support by Lynch and Bob Bailey. Lynch smacked a key two-run double for the Pirates and Bailey connected for a homer.

Gordy Coleman's homer in the second—the only hit off Dodger starter Joe Moellre in seven innings—and Marty Keough's eighth-inning single produced the Reds' runs. Cincinnati starter Jim O'Toole allowed only two hits in seven innings but went out when Keough batted and the Dodger scored their run against Sam Ellis.

Dick Farrell brought his record to 9-1 for the Colts with his sixth straight victory but needed Hal Woodeshick's ninth-inning relief help. With one run in and two on, Woodeshick got Joe Torre to hit into a double play, and struck out Ed Matthews.

Don Nottebart won his first game after seven losses with a five-hitter in the nightcap. Bob Aspromonte hit his second homer of the night in the eighth inning—only the second hit off Bob Sadowski—and started a four-run surge that won it for the Colts.

The Mets won the opener against the Cubs when Jesse Gonder singled with the bases loaded in the 12th inning, capping a two-run rally. Larry Bearnarth pitched 7 1/3 innings of hitless relief ball and wound up the winner, with a six-hit, 10-inning performance.

Lew Burdette, acquired from St. Louis, won his first start for the Cubs in the nightcap. The decisive run came across in the sixth on a double by Billy Williams and Ron Santo's single.

U.S. Complains of Water Bill

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (AP)—Uncle Sam took on the role of a private citizen here and complained about his water bill.

The director of the Veterans Administration domiciliary, E. C. McDaniel, told city officials the domiciliary's water bill had jumped 84 per cent under a new rate plan and he urgently needed an adjustment.

Otherwise, he said, he would be compelled to readjust his budget to the extent of firing at least one employee.

The commission took the request under consideration with a promise to provide relief if possible.

Michigan.

It was Nixon's opinion that the chances for an agreement on a candidate the party moderates could back against Goldwater were not very great.

Nixon contended that the party must work hard to have Goldwater change some of his views on national issues.

"It would be a tragedy for the Republican party if the Goldwater views previously stated were not repudiated," Nixon told the news conference.

Nixon termed Goldwater "as odds-on favorite," but said he does not have the nomination "wrapped up."

He said that a number of the governors expressed concern because there might not be a contest at the Republican convention in San Francisco.

Nixon also contended that any opposition force "if it emerges, will have to emerge this week."

He said that if such a development were to come about it would be decided by the governors "by the end of this week."

"I am confident Sen. Goldwater will support a platform with views which in the past he has been in a minority on," Nixon said.

heavy hitting support by Lynch and Bob Bailey. Lynch smacked a key two-run double for the Pirates and Bailey connected for a homer.

Gordy Coleman's homer in the second—the only hit off Dodger starter Joe Moellre in seven innings—and Marty Keough's eighth-inning single produced the Reds' runs. Cincinnati starter Jim O'Toole allowed only two hits in seven innings but went out when Keough batted and the Dodger scored their run against Sam Ellis.

Dick Farrell brought his record to 9-1 for the Colts with his sixth straight victory but needed Hal Woodeshick's ninth-inning relief help. With one run in and two on, Woodeshick got Joe Torre to hit into a double play, and struck out Ed Matthews.

Don Nottebart won his first game after seven losses with a five-hitter in the nightcap. Bob Aspromonte hit his second homer of the night in the eighth inning—only the second hit off Bob Sadowski—and started a four-run surge that won it for the Colts.

The Mets won the opener against the Cubs when Jesse Gonder singled with the bases loaded in the 12th inning, capping a two-run rally. Larry Bearnarth pitched 7 1/3 innings of hitless relief ball and wound up the winner, with a six-hit, 10-inning performance.

Lew Burdette, acquired from St. Louis, won his first start for the Cubs in the nightcap. The decisive run came across in the sixth on a double by Billy Williams and Ron Santo's single.

UN Leaving; Congo Faces Dark Days

By ROBIN MANNOCK

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Lights burn late at U.N. headquarters in Leopoldville. Senior officers of the world organization's Congo army wear harassed and even guilty looks.

The Congo apparently is heading for dark and violent days, but they are getting out. By June 30, the Congo's fourth independence day, the last of 3,406 U.N. soldiers from 12 nations will have gone home, their job finished.

Finished? In Kivu, on the Congo's eastern border, Communist-backed pygmy-like Bafulero warriors routed five companies of Congolese soldiers and threatened Bukavu, the provincial capital.

At Albertville, capital of North Katanga, a short-lived revolt against Provincial President Jasson Sendwe took more than 100 lives. Wives of two U.N. civilians were raped.

Farther west, young warriors invaded the South Kasai town of Mwene-Ditu and murdered five citizens by forcing them to swallow pill-pili, a tiny, fiendishly hot red pepper used to season food.

To the north, Stanleyville, once the late Premier Patrice Lumumba's area and still a hotbed of extremism, seethes with discontent. The central government has named a resident minister to supervise Provincial President Paul Isombuma, deposed by his provincial assembly but reinstated by Leopoldville.

In the center, Peking-trained ex-Education Minister Pierre Mulele leads a rebellion in Kivu. His warriors also burn and kill in neighboring provinces.

In Leopoldville, nightfall turns more than 1.2 million people to prisoners inside their homes.

A dusk-to-dawn curfew is the government's answer to plastic bomb attacks against churches, electric power installations and the capital's railroad to the sea. Saboteurs made an unsuccessful bid to blow down the wall of Makala prison in broad daylight.

Across the river in Brazzaville, capital of the Congo's sister republic, exiled extremists plot Premier Cyrille Adoula's violent overthrow, bribing soldiers to act as hired assassins.

"These are the darkest days since 1960," declares one high U.N. officer, recalling the Congolese army mutiny only seven days after independence which sent the country into an orgy of killing, looting, raping, destruction and secession.

That brought the United Nations here.

Its rank and file soldiers do not try to conceal their impatience to be gone. Departure dates are ringed with red on wall calendars.

It can be argued that putting down the rebellions in Kivu and Kwilu is no business of the United Nations.

"Lots of countries have internal security problems," says a U.N. political official who insists on remaining anonymous. "We have to leave one day—we can't stay here forever."

To a large extent, the Congo's present woes are unfinished business. Four years of crisis-ridden independence have been too short to solve deep-rooted tribal, political and economic questions.

Add to this the bewilderment of the ordinary Congolese trying desperately to belong to the 20th century. All the wisdom of his tribal forebears means nothing when he confronts the complexities of modern society.

Add to this a leadership crisis that was inevitable the day this vast, rich nation was handed by its Belgian colonial rulers to 14 million people of whom less than a score had university degrees and even fewer any real experience of accepting responsibility.

Almost all observers are agreed that Adoula and some of his close collaborators have grown in political stature in battling for survival.

But their measures to keep the country afloat have been misunderstood by the bulk of Congolese. The leaders are unpopular.

Piling on the agony is the inefficiency of corruption, laziness and tribal favoritism displayed by the administration Adoula commands. He rarely knows whether his subordinates will obey him. Ministers fight viciously among themselves.

Next comes racism. Most Congolese know that their country cannot survive without help from white technicians. But they resent it.

On the other side of the racial coin, many whites still lump all Congolese into the "macaca" (monkey) category.

Top this off with a lavish dash of cold war—Peking style. Most experts on communism here are convinced the Chinese are flexing their muscles in Africa, probing for weaknesses.

The sum of all these factors equals indifference by a lot of Congolese toward their coun-

The Story: Milo March questions members of the Washington hotel staff who were on duty when Thomas Rako vanished nearly seven years ago. Rako was last seen in the hotel after he had testified before a Congressional committee. March is now talking to the bell captain.

XV

"I don't want you to remember something new," I said. "I just want you to remember something old. I don't know the story so it'll be new to me. Did you see him come in the day he disappeared?"

"Yes. When I'm here I see everybody come in and go out. Usually I don't know one of them from the other, but his picture was in all the papers, so I knew who he was."

"What happened?"

"Nothing. He came in and stopped at the desk. The clerk went into the office and came back and gave him an envelope."

"What did he do then?"

"Took one of the elevators up. I imagine to his room."

"Did he come down again?"

"No, sir. That is, I didn't see him."

"Could he have slipped out without your seeing him?"

"Not this way sir, unless he was heavily disguised. And if there had been such a person I would have remembered that."

"Is there some other way he could have gone out?"

"There is in every hotel. He could have gone out through the basement. It wouldn't be easy to do without being seen, but I suppose it could be done."

"Okay. Was Rako carrying anything when he came in that night?"

"Two packages. Looked like clothes."

"I went over to the elevators and up to my room. I picked up the phone and asked room service to send up a bucket of ice. There was a discreet knock on the door. I went over and opened it. The waiter was there with my ice. I let him in and watched him as he put the bucket down in the room and got out the check and a pencil. He seemed to be about 55 and had the pale, stooped look of most room-service waiters."

"I added a generous tip to the check and signed it. As I handed it to him, he started to turn away, glancing at the tip at the same time. He knew it was too big a tip for just delivering ice. He stopped and looked at me.

"How long have you been working here?" I asked.

"Twenty years, sir."

"That's a long time. Were you on room service seven years ago?"

"Yes, sir."

"Do you remember the man who disappeared from here at that time?"

"I served his last dinner, sir."

"The one he didn't eat?"

"Yes, sir. I've always thought that something must have happened to him right after I left the room."

"The police have kept questioning you all this time?"

"Yes, sir. The police, newspaper reporters, there was even one magazine writer." He said it with pride.

"It must have been quite an experience. Tell me about it."

"What, sir?"

"The night that Mr. Rako disappeared."

"There isn't much to tell," he said sadly. "Mr. Rako called room service and told them what time he wanted his dinner delivered. He asked for me. I had served him the two previous nights. I brought the dinner up at the time he'd requested. I knocked on the door and he called for me to come in."

"He was here then?" I asked.

"Yes, sir. I wheeled the table in and set it up. He called out to tell me that there was money on the dresser and to keep the change."

"Called out? Where was he?"

"In the bathroom. Taking a shower I believe. The door was partly open and I could hear the shower."

"Did he always pay in cash instead of signing the check?"

"No, sir. I guess he knew he would be in the shower and didn't want to have to come out to sign the check."

"What did you do?"

"Picked up the money and left. But do you know how much it was?"

"How much?"

"A hundred-dollar bill. That was the largest tip I ever received in 30 years as a waiter."

"I guess he must have felt in a generous mood," I said. "What else?"

"That's all, sir. I never saw him again."

"I was tempted to point out that he hadn't seen him that time either, but I refrained. Well, thank you."

The amendment was passed by the Senate today, 51 to 48.

Sound Of Profits
New York (AP)—"The Sound of Music," the fourth longest-running musical in Broadway annals, ended its White Way engagement with a profit of $2½ million on a $500,000 investment.

"Sound" racked up a record of 1,443 performances, just behind "My Fair Lady," "Oklahoma!" and "South Pacific."

U.S. Dist. Judge Arthur J. Stanley pronounced sentence immediately.

Walker Suit Against AP Underway

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Attorneys for former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker begin presenting evidence today in his $2-million libel suit against The Associated Press.

A jury of four women and eight men was selected Monday clearing the way for presentation of evidence by the plaintiff. All 12 jurors must agree to any verdict returned to State District Court Judge Charles J. Murray in the civil suit.

The Associated Press, as defendant, will present its evidence after the plaintiff.

Walker, 54, contends Associated Press stories falsely accused him of leading a charge during the 1962 civil rights riot at the University of Mississippi in Oxford, Miss. Walker's chief attorney, Clyde Watts Oklahoma City, said in his opening statement that Walker did not lead any charge, and did not assume command of the riot crowd.

"We are not trying a segregation or integration case," said J. A. Gooch Associated Press attorney, in his opening statement. "We are trying the case of an individual trying to defy the courts and laws of this land."

The Associated Press answer to Walker's suit says assessment of any damages would be a restraint on the freedom of press as guaranteed by the U.S. and Texas constitutions.

Gooch said the defense evidence would prove that Associated Press stories concerning Walker's actions at Oxford were and are true in fact and substance.

"I think President Eisenhower is neutral in this situation as he has been in the past," Goldwater said. "I do not think he has changed his position and I do not expect him to take any action that would be aimed at blocking me."

Goldwater said that in the absence of any expressed opposition from Eisenhower he is confident he will get the nomination at the mid-July San Francisco convention. He added that he thinks he has a good chance of defeating President Johnson in November.

"Wait until the people begin to assess Johnson's stand on this civil rights question and come to realize that his spending policies are out of line," the senator said. "Then we'll see whether we Republicans can beat him."

In a brief appearance as a conference guest, Goldwater avoided any conferences with Republican governors who have been complaining that his conservative views would make it difficult for him to carry their states as the GOP nominee.

Specifically, he did not make himself available for discussions with Govs. George Romney of Michigan, William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania and Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York. All three have said that Goldwater's positions on foreign and domestic policies would damage the Republican ticket in their important electoral vote states.

Goldwater indicated that his conference with Eisenhower did not get deeply into politics. He control, spun around and went backwards down an embankment.

Production May Be New Farm Base

By OVID A. MARTIN

Associated Press Farm Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—Talk has bobbed up in farm circles of reviving proposals to place farm program benefits on a quantity basis.

Insofar as crops are concerned, benefits are extended to farmers who restrict output on an acreage basis. In 1960 the Democratic party's farm platform endorsed the idea of shifting to a production unit basis.

The new talk arose in the wake of an Agriculture Department report predicting that reserve and surplus supplies of feed grains would increase this year despite the operation of a feed grain program under which $846 million was paid out to growers to hold down production.

This program offers benefits to farmers who divert a part of their seed grain from production. What happened was that the decrease in acreages used for the 1963 feed grain crops was largely offset by an increase in output per acre.

Many farmers diverted their poorest acres, used more fertilizers and better seed and production practices. The corn crop was the largest of record despite the fact that 17 million acres were idled.

The reserve and surplus supplies of feed grains on Oct. 1, the beginning of the 1964 crop marketing year, are expected to increase nearly 7 million tons over the 63 million a year earlier.

However, the idea of shifting control programs from the acre compliance basis to a production basis has met with strong resistance. It would be that Congress when called upon next year to extend the feed grain program may insist on such a shift.

Applying controls on a production unit basis would have administrative difficulties, particularly for feed grains because nearly half these grains are used on farms where grown for livestock feeding. Controls based on unit production would be easier to administer on crops whose major portion moves to market such as tobacco, cotton, and wheat.

Goldwater Feels Ike Is Neutral

By JACK BELL

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater left the 56th annual Governors Conference feeling confident that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will not upset his bid for the GOP presidential nomination.

The silver-haired senator said in an interview Monday night that he is convinced the former president—about the only man who could do so—would not interfere in Goldwater's headlong rush toward the 655 delegate votes needed for the nomination.

Goldwater given an ovation on his arrival at a conference dinner, stayed to hear Eisenhower speak. He talked briefly with Eisenhower and other party leaders while table-hopping, then flew back to Washington for action on the civil rights bill amendments.

"I think President Eisenhower is neutral in this situation as he has been in the past," Goldwater said. "I do not think he has changed his position and I do not expect him to take any action that would be aimed at blocking me."

Goldwater said that in the absence of any expressed opposition from Eisenhower he is confident he will get the nomination at the mid-July San Francisco convention. He added that he thinks he has a good chance of defeating President Johnson in November.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Although the three major television networks have been proclaiming for some time that their fall schedules were "locked up," somebody at ABC has kept the key.

In a sudden change of plans Monday, ABC announced it would drop its Saturday evening "Hootenanny" folk-song program and replace it with "The Outer Limits," a science fiction drama series that has done pretty well this season.

The move undoubtedly is popular with the "Outer Limits" people, because it had been pitted next season opposite both "The Beverly Hillbillies" and "The Dick Van Dyke Show," two CBS programs which are among the most popular shows on the channels.

Into that tough Wednesday evening spot dominated by the CBS comedy shows, ABC has placed a new musical show—designed primarily to appeal to teen-agers—called "Shindig," followed by "Mickey," a situation comedy starring Mickey Rooney, pulled out of its Friday night lineup. Mickey's replacement will be a comedy series called "Valentine's Day," starring Tony Franciosa.

The shifts do little to change the general complexion of next season's Saturday night programming. "Outer Limits" at 7:30 p.m. (Eastern time) has a strong appeal to the young audience as does NBC's pair of new comedy shows at the same time: "Flipper," which has a domesticated dolphin for a star, followed by a cartoon series about croak-voiced Mr. Magoo.

That will leave adults of all ages in the great audience with a choice between Jackie Gleason's variety hour, a good book or a night on the town.

The really good news today is that at long last CBS Ed Sullivan Show has finally concluded its bookings of British rock 'n' roll groups, although the situation makes one wonder how those teen-age female screamers in his studio audiences will now spend their Sunday evenings.

Helena Is Voting on Big Plant

HELENA, Ark. (AP)—Helena residents voted today on a proposed $29 million bond issue to help finance construction of a $33 million fertilizer plant planned by Arkla Chemical Co.

Approval was expected because the bonds are not supported by a tax.

The bonds will be issued under Act 9 of 1960 which provides for issuance of revenue bonds, backed only by a pledge of rental money from the facility to be built. The bonds are attractive to investors because interest paid on them is not subject to either state or federal income tax.

The proposed plant will employ about 300 in making of ammonia, ammonium nitrate, urea and other fertilizers and fertilizer components.

The plant will be built 1½ miles south of Helena on the Mississippi River.

2 More Jets Are Hit by Guerrillas

TOKYO (AP)—Pro-Communist Pathet Lao ground forces exchanged fire and damaged two U.S. jet planes that flew over Pathet Lao controlled territory in Laos today, Peking radio reported.

The Chinese-language broadcast, monitored here, said the fighting took place this morning when six U.S. jet fighters flew over Khang Khay, site of Pathet Lao headquarters in the Plain de Jarres, and Phong Savang, also in the plan area.

The broadcast, quoting a dispatch from Khang Khay, also claimed the planes dropped 12 bombs and fired two rockets on Phong Savang.

The former president did not bring up political matters and he himself didn't volunteer any observations in that field.

"We talked mostly about golf and how to get rid of the bursitis that has been bothering him," the senator said.

Success To London
LONDON (AP)—The Rodgers Hart musical hit of 25 years ago "The Boys from Syracuse" gets its first British production at the Drury Lane Nov. 7.

The show was recently revived off-Broadway and that New York success prompted the London undertaking.

Drug Suit Testimony Is Begun

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—Two of the four Crossett residents who filed suit for $4 million against a New York drug firm testified Monday in the opening of the damage trial in U.S. District Court here.

The plaintiffs all claim they took Mer 29, also known as triparanol, made by Richardson-Merrill, Inc. They are Truman Ellerbe, Lonnie Ray, May G. Lyons and Lela Newsom.

Mrs. Newsom and Ray testified first. Ray said he had lost his hair three times as a result of taking the drug which was prescribed to lower the cholesterol content of his blood after he had a heart attack.

The suit being tried here is one of several filed over the nation. Originally there were other plaintiffs in the El Dorado case but they settled out of court for undisclosed amounts.

Mer 29 was withdrawn from the market in April 1962, about two years after it was introduced.

The plaintiffs allege they suffered loss of hair, skin disorders and eye ailments from taking the drug.

Rush Faces New Trial at Waldron

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—Frederick L. Rush of Fort Smith, whose 1963 murder conviction was overturned by the state Supreme Court is scheduled to be transferred to the Scott County jail at Waldron today.

Rush, convicted and sentenced to life in prison for the shooting of his step-father, Paul Rush, will stand trial at Waldron. A date for the new trial has not been set.

Circuit Judge Paul Wolfe of Fort Smith issued the order Monday transferring Rush from the Sebastian County jail here.

The supreme court said Rush should have been granted a change of venue from Sebastian County Circuit Court, and also said one of the jurors had discussed the case with an employee of the victim's firm.

Rush's step-father was the operator of a Fort Smith furniture factory. He was killed at the factory on May 13, 1962.

Two other persons, Carolyn Brown and Raymond Wood, were charged in the slaying, but were acquitted.

Courthouse Merger Is Appealed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Circuit Court ruling that consolidation of two county seats in Sharp County was valid was appealed Monday to the state Supreme Court.

Residents of Sharp County approved 1,438 to 617 consolidation of separate county seats at Hardy and Evening Shade into one county seat at Ash Flat.

Voters also approved the construction of a $235,000 court house at Ash Flat in the election last June.

But both issues were held defeated on the grounds that the state constitution required approval by a majority of registered voters in the county. At that time 2,991 voters were shown on the poll tax list.

Circuit Judge Harrell Simpson ruled May 16 that both issues passed by sufficient and proper majorities and ordered that steps be taken immediately to move the county seat to Ash Flat and to build a new court house there.

The Supreme Court suit was filed by C. K. Vance of Evening Shade and others.

Father Has His Son Shoot Him

LOS ANGELES (AP)—In the climax to a series of bitter quarrels, Leonard Thierry's wife left him.

Police said that Thierry then awakened his three small children.

He showed Theresa, 7, a pistol and told her to shoot him. She refused.

He told Gary, 5, how to work the pistol and told him to shoot. He refused.

Then he put the pistol in the hands of Glen, 4. He, too, refused.

Urban Reject Decision Is Appealed
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Point-sett Chancery Court decision favoring an Urban Renewal project at Trumann was appealed Monday to the state Supreme Court by opponents of the project.

The project, called the Speedway Urban Renewal Project would cost an estimated $737,557. Under it, 97 of 167 homes in a 47 - acre area would be constructed.

The association contends the area is not a slum and other parts of the city would better benefit from Urban Renewal.

Funds for the project cover drainage, paving and other improvements.

Thought For The Day
A smooth sea never made a skillful mariner; neither do uninterrupted prosperity and success qualify men for usefulness and happiness.—Burton said it.

Calendar of Events
The Missionary Society of the Garrett Chapel Baptist Church will present its annual Children's Day program Sunday, June 14, at 11:00 a.m. The public is invited to attend. Mrs. Marie Williams, Program chairman; Mrs. Georgia R. Hickles, President; Dr. F.R. Williams, minister.

Personal Mention
Mr. A.R. McKinley, a resident of Hope for seventy years, is convalescing at home after a week in a local hospital. He is grateful to his many visitors and hopes that their interest in his recovery will continue.

His niece, Mrs. Hazel Todd of Detroit, Mich., and his nephew R.A. Stafford of Kansas City are with the family.

Theater Folks Tell All
New York (AP) — Plenty of new books about the theater are listed by leading publishers for release next fall.

Among them are the autobiographical "Mister Abbott," by George Abbott; "Max Gordon Presents," by that impresario and Lewis Funke; "Minority Report."

The chancery court decision approved the project but ruled against an agreement by which the city of Trumann was bound to finance the project.

In the suit, filed by the Trumann Anti-Urban Renewal Association, Trumann city and Urban Renewal officials are accused of not properly informing property owners of the project.

State Briefs
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Leon Catlett, chairman of the state Democratic Party Committee, urged Girls State delegates to work for political candidates this summer. He told them Monday that precinct-level work was the best way to learn politics. The 22nd session of Girls State continues at Camp Robinson near here until Saturday morning.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The U.S. Civil Service Commission began a comprehensive review Monday of equal employment opportunities of federal agencies in the Little Rock area. A regional official said reviews in other nearby states showed no overt discrimination, and he said the commission doesn't expect to find any discrimination here.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Urban Renewal Administration announced Monday two grants for Arkansas projects. One for $12,000 will go to the University of Arkansas to aid in comprehensive planning for Alma, Elaine and Ozark. The other for $213,332 is to the Arkansas Planning Commission for its statewide program of planning.

WYNNE, Ark. (AP)—Deputy Prosecutor Max B. Harrison of Blytheville said Floyd Bowman, 61, has been charged with first-degree murder in the shooting last Wednesday of Carl W. Powell, 41, Bowman, of near Wynne, is being held without bond. Sheriff Joe Wood said Powell was shot as he got out of his car at his farm home west of Wynne.

Wirates to Press for an Answer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gene Wirates former editor of the Morrilton Democrat, said Monday he wants satisfaction from a debate challenge issued by Conway County Sheriff Marlin Hawkins.

Wirates said he would ignore a debate condition set by Hawkins that he post $200,000 bond before taking part in a debate.

Hawkins challenged Wirates to the debate last month in a speech to a government class at Arkansas Tech in Russellville. Wirates accepted, but Hawkins said Wirates would have to post the bond, because he said he wanted to protect himself and Conway County from "libelous" remarks Wirates might make.

"I want to debate the issues," Wirates said Monday. "The people have a right to have the facts." Wirates said if Hawkins won't debate, he might consider debating any of Hawkins' friends even Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

The former editor said he didn't think Hawkins or any of his friends would show up for port," by playwright Elmer Rice; and "Noty Dying," by another dramatist, William Saroyan.

Eddie Cantor will be represented by "As I Remember Them," and the ladies will be on hand with Jean Dalrymple's "September Child" and Peggy Wood's "Arts and Flowers."

Civil Rights Bill 'Won't Last Long'
Wallace
By REIMAN MORIN
AP Special Correspondent
MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama says that if the civil rights bill is enacted, "it will be repealed in two to four years."

"I'm not advocating disobedience of any law," Wallace said in an interview. "But people, North and South, are going to resist and resist this. It will take a police state to enforce it. It's a severe attack on private property and free enterprise, and when people realize this, the law will be repealed in two to four years."

Wallace said he is convinced that feeling over the racial issue was an important factor in Sen. Barry Goldwater's victory over Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York in the California Republican presidential primary June 2.

As for Rockefeller's state, Wallace said: "New York already has all those civil rights laws on the books and New York has more problems today than any other state in the union."

Answering a question, he said he has no plans to organize a nationwide movement to work for repealing the civil rights bill if or when it becomes law. "I won't put myself up for that," Wallace said, "but I'll do my part as best I know how."

Judging from Wallace's out-of-a-debate.

Whether Hawkins debates or not Wirates said he intends to continue investigating "machine" (political conditions here in Arkansas).

Wirates said he may take matters directly to Faubus.

Wirates waged a long battle in his newspaper against Conway County politicians. He lost libel suits totaling $275,000 to two county officials and lost his newspaper to creditors last December.

Little Rock Radio Station KAAV offered free time for the Wirates - Hawkins debate. Len Carl, station manager sent registered letters to both men Monday, and asked for an immediate reply.

Star Comics Larger and Easier to Read Today

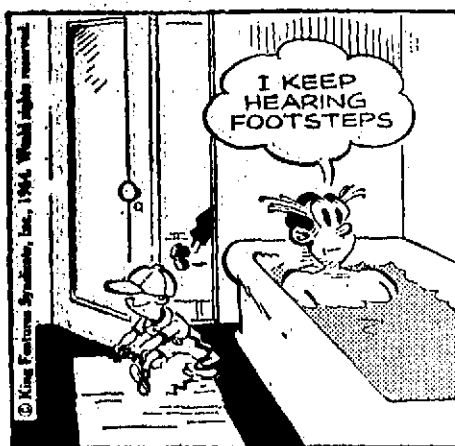

Hope Star publishes 17 cartoons and the crossword puzzle daily — 12 features on this page — and the other five on separate pages.

Our reproduction is the largest offered by the national newspaper feature syndicates. The remaining four-column strips will be increased to five columns as soon as the syndicates make the larger size available.
